

THE KATSU SORA EXPERIENCE

“Katsu” is short for tonkatsu, a Japanese pork cutlet that is breaded and deep-fried, with a crispy texture on the outside while remaining tender on the inside. “Sora” means sky, which stands for our promise that we deliver premium tonkatsu that will take you to new heights, with a wide variety of premium options open to you.

Our Japanese master chef knows that at the heart of the perfect tonkatsu is premium pork meat. That’s why we serve our dishes with three kinds of world-class pork: Iberico, Kurobuta, and Sakura. Each pork has its own unique flavor and texture, but all are of the best quality—marbled, flavorful, and naturally tender without the use of chemical tenderizers.

We take the concept of premium options to our other dishes too. Instead of being limited to one type of side, each Set order will give you access to an unlimited ingredients to create your own custom salad. The ability to create an infinite number of combinations allows you to have a unique dining experience each time.

With our attention to premium pork, quality ingredients, and a diverse selection of choices, we deliver an authentic Japanese dining experience that is on a class of its own. You will taste the difference.

Iberico Pork

This is the highly coveted pork from Spain that comes from the family of black Iberico pigs. Its meat is very mature and highly flavorful with a butter-like texture. Rich in oleic acid, it also raises good cholesterol and lowers bad cholesterol.

Kurobuta Pork

Kurobuta is known as the Wagyu of pork. It comes from a line of heritage pigs called Berkshire and is bred in Kagoshima, Japan. It is known for its prized attributes of juiciness, unsurpassed tenderness from its highly marbled meat, and outstanding flavor.

Sakura Pork

This grain-fed pork from Canada is a special breed made specifically for the discerning Japanese market. It is fed with barley, giving its fat a lighter color and a firmer texture. Its meat is moist with a mild flavor and a clean finish that is appreciated by pork lovers everywhere.

SALAD BAR

Make your own salad with our fresh ingredients. Fill your bowl with any combination of salad greens, fruits, toppings, and dressing. Available with any Set order.
